

Thinking of moving out of state after you retire?

Do you know if the state you're moving to will tax your pension?

Read below to find out more!

States that do NOT tax your Massachusetts pension:

Alabama	Nevada
Alaska	New Hampshire
Florida	Pennsylvania (over age 59½)
Hawaii	South Dakota
Illinois	Tennessee
Kansas	Texas
Massachusetts	Washington state
Mississippi	Wyoming

The following states may give you a partial exemption on your Massachusetts pension:

Arkansas	Michigan	Ohio
Colorado	Minnesota	Oklahoma
Delaware	Missouri	Oregon
Georgia	Montana	Rhode Island
Iowa	New Jersey	Utah
Kentucky	New Mexico	Virginia
Louisiana	New York	West Virginia
Maine	North Carolina
Maryland	South Carolina

The following states will FULLY TAX your Massachusetts pension:

Arizona	Idaho	North Dakota
California	Indiana	Vermont
Connecticut	Nebraska	Wisconsin
District of Columbia	North Carolina

*This information was taken from Massachusetts' Department of Revenue website on 04/11/2017, and was last updated in 2014.
Look under www.mass.gov, then Department of Revenue, then Pensions General Information, then Other State's Tax Treatment of Out of State Employee Contributory Government Pensions.

G:\Word\Retiree stuff\taxes on pensions by States.doc